Closing arguments.

THE COURT FINDS that both parents are competent to provide custody and care for the minor child. Both are motivated and acting in the best interest of the minor child. Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED affirming the prior Order awarding the parties joint legal custody of the minor child.

For reasons stated on the record, the Court does not find a need to deviate from the equal parenting time of the parties.

THE COURT FINDS that the parties are in substantial agreement to equal access time.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that equal access time on the parties of the parents include the utilization of daycare by both.

During the first 2 weeks of the month,

IT IS ORDERED that Father shall have access with the minor child as set forth in the recommendation by Conciliation Services, from 3:30 p.m. Thursday through 1:00 p.m. Sunday and Mother shall have access with the minor child from 1:00 p.m. Sunday through 3:30 p.m. Thursday.

During the second 2 weeks of the month,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Father shall have access with the minor child from 3:30 p.m. Wednesday to 3:30 p.m. Saturday and Mother shall have the balance of the time.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties shall share equally in the burden and cost of transporting the minor child. The party who is to begin the visitation will be responsible for picking up the minor child.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that there be no change in the child's school district or school location without written permission of both parties or Order of the Court.

During the summer,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each party shall have up to 5 uninterrupted weeks of visitation time with the minor child. The Court recommends however, that during that 5 uninterrupted weeks of visitation time each party has and the child is in town and not away on vacation, that the parties consider allowing some flexibility with the minor child during that period of time.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Father's summer visitation in 2002 shall start the first week of June.

The Court will adopt the holiday schedule recommended by Conciliation Services in their report dated August 2, 2001 except as follows:

1. Christmas Day will end at 6:00 p.m. and New Year's Day will end at 6:00 p.m.
2. Mother shall pick up the minor child from Father's Residence the weekends she has the minor child
